Question of the day

What is one thing you hate doing and why?

- ❖ Tell something you really dislike doing — an activity or task and explain the reason.

Topic of the Day:

1. Intonation
2. Word stress
3. Body language
4. Magic words

Intonation

Definition

Intonation is the variation in the pitch, pace, volume, and stress of your voice while speaking.

it also includes how fast or slow you speak, how loudly or softly, and which words you emphasize to express meaning clearly.

Key Components of Intonation:

1.  Pitch – how high or low your voice sounds.
2.  Pace (Rate of Speech) – how fast or slow you speak.
3.  Volume – how loudly or softly you speak.
4.  Word Stress – which words or syllables you emphasize.
5.  Clarity – how clearly you pronounce and express each word.

Component	What it Means	Effect on Speech	Example
Pitch 🎵	How high or low your voice goes	Rising = question/surprise: Falling = statement/fact:	You're coming? You're coming.
Pace / Rate ⌚	How fast or slow you speak	Fast = excitement: Slow = seriousness:	I can't believe it! I can't believe it.
Volume 🔊	How loud or soft your voice is	Loud = anger/excitement: Soft = calm/secretive:	I CAN'T believe it I can't believe it.
Word Stress 💬	Which words or syllables you emphasize	focus on person focus on action	YOU are coming. You are COMING .
Clarity 🎧	Clear pronunciation and articulation	Mispronounced words or mumbling can confuse meaning.	-

Mind the Topic

The proper pronunciation is:

✅ in-tə-NAY-shun

❌ in-to-NAY-shun

Word stress

✅ Definition

Word stress is which part of a word you “highlight” by saying it a little louder, longer, or with a higher pitch.

Word stress is the emphasis given to a particular word when speaking. It affects pronunciation, clarity, and meaning.

✓ Examples

➤ Samm wears a blue jacket

✓ Stress on “Samm”

SAMM wears a blue jacket.

- Meaning: The focus is on who wears the jacket.
- Implication: Maybe someone asked, “Who wears a blue jacket?”

✓ Stress on “wears”

Samm WEARS a blue jacket.

- Meaning: The focus is on the action, not the person or the jacket.
- Implication: Maybe correcting someone: “No, he wears a blue jacket, he doesn’t carry it.”

✓ Stress on “blue”

Samm wears a BLUE jacket.

- Meaning: The focus is on the color.
- Implication: Maybe no one wear blue color jacket other than Samm”

✓ Stress on “jacket”

Samm wears a blue JACKET.

- Meaning: The focus is on the type of clothing, not the color.
- Implication: Maybe someone asked, “What is he wearing?” or “Is it a coat, a shirt, or a jacket?”

Body language

✓ Definition

Body language is the way we communicate non-verbally using gestures, posture, facial expressions, and movements instead of words.

It's a big part of how we express feelings, intentions, and attitudes. Often, body language can say more than words.

Key Components of Body Language

1. Facial expressions – The face shows emotions:

- Smile → friendliness/happiness
- Frown → anger/confusion
- Raised eyebrows → surprise

2. Gestures – Movements of hands, arms, or head:

- Thumbs up → approval

- Nodding → agreement
- Shaking head → disagreement

3. Posture – How you sit or stand:

- Straight, open posture → confidence
- Slouched posture → tiredness, lack of confidence

4. Eye contact – Where and how you look at someone:

- Good eye contact → interest, confidence
- Avoiding eyes → nervousness, discomfort

Magic Words

✓ Examples

Name	Description	When to Use
Silence is Golden	Absolute silence. No one is talking.	Library, exams, meditation rooms, hospital wards
Spy Talk	Whispering; only one person can hear you.	Passing a secret message in class, telling a friend quietly
Low Flow	Small group discussion, soft voices.	Group projects, study circles, small team meetings
Formal Normal	Normal conversational voice.	Chatting with friends, normal classroom discussion, office talk —everyone can speak normally.
Loud Crowd	Presenting voice. Everyone can hear you.	Class presentations, announcements, giving instructions to a team
Out of Control	Playground voice, very loud, never indoors.	Outdoor games, cheering at sports events
