Question of the day

What's your go-to comfort meal?

- ❖ What is the food you always like to eat when you want to feel better, relaxed, or comforted?

Topic of the Day: Determination

Determination means the strong, unwavering desire to keep going toward a goal—no matter how difficult the path becomes. It's the inner force that pushes you to continue even when you feel tired, discouraged, or unsure

Determination is the ability to stay focused and keep trying until you succeed.

Limitless Lives (Stronger Than Circumstances)

The Splash Sisters

The Splash Sisters are the league's oldest team, with all members 80 years or older, most around 85+

They play 3-on-3 half-court basketball with 15-minute halves (30 minutes total).

Motivation to Play

- Driven by a strong desire to stay active, healthy, and engaged.
- Many players discovered basketball later in life — even in their late 70s or early 80s.
- Believe in trying rather than living with regret.

Team Spirit & Competitiveness

- High levels of energy, enthusiasm, and passion.
- Frequently compete against younger teams, and always play to win.
- Maintain proper warm-ups, routines, and teamwork, showing serious commitment.

Overcoming Doubts & Barriers

- Some players faced discouragement from family or society.
- One woman ignored remarks like “You’re too old for this” and chose to follow her passion.
- Their journey represents courage and self-belief.

Social Connections & Community

- The league builds meaningful friendships and emotional support.
- Strong sense of sisterhood across diverse backgrounds.
- Social bonding contributes to happiness and life satisfaction.

Health, Vitality & Well-Being

- Basketball keeps them physically active, proving that age is not a barrier to fitness.
- Many players feel younger than their age, crediting movement and positivity.
- The sport provides:
 - Physical challenge
 - Mental stimulation
 - A more engaged, fulfilling lifestyle

The Power Points

- Age should never stop anyone from being active or exploring new hobbies.
- Staying involved in sports brings joy, purpose, and confidence.
- The Splash Sisters demonstrate:
 - Encouragement for seniors to join sports
 - Enthusiastic competition against younger players
 - Courage to defy age-based doubts
 - Deep friendships on and off the court
 - Positive, active, and fulfilling aging

✦ Arunima Sinha – From Tragedy to Triumph

Early Life & Athletic Spirit

- National-level volleyball player known for discipline and competitiveness.
- Continued playing even with injuries, showing early signs of fighting spirit.
- While traveling for a job interview, her life took a drastic turn.

The Train Accident

- Attacked during a train robbery, where she bravely resisted the thieves.
- Was pushed off the moving train onto the railway tracks.
- Suffered:
 - Severe injuries
 - Heavy blood loss
 - A night-long struggle for survival
- Due to the damage, doctors had to amputate one of her legs.

Choosing Strength Over Victimhood

- Refused to see herself as a victim, despite the trauma.
- Focused intensely on recovery and rehabilitation.
- Decided to set an unimaginable goal: climbing Mount Everest.
- Turned her pain into purpose.

Beginning the Everest Dream

- Faced strong doubt from society and experts.
- Training was demanding, risky, and physically exhausting.

- Relied heavily on her background as an athlete:
 - Discipline
 - Mental toughness
 - Persistence
 - Trained long hours, often pushing through pain and setbacks.

Challenges with the Prosthetic Leg

- A prosthetic leg malfunctioned during her early mountaineering practice.
- Forced to stop early because the pain was too much.
- Instead of quitting, she doubled down on:
 - Tougher training
 - Greater discipline
 - Stronger mental conditioning

The Everest Expedition

- Faced extreme mountain conditions:
 - Freezing weather
 - Low oxygen
 - Steep and dangerous ice walls
- Continued with unshakable determination.

✨ On May 21, 2013, she became the first female amputee to summit Mount Everest. ✨

Legacy & Inspiration

- Proved that limitations are beginnings, not endings.
- Encourages people to overcome their own obstacles — their “personal Everest.”
- Inspires millions with:
 - Courage
 - Stay determined
 - Unbreakable willpower

- A global symbol of empowerment, and human potential.

✨ Arunima's story is a powerful reminder that courage can rise above tragedy, and the human spirit can climb any mountain.
