- Which is better: arranged marriage or love marriage?
If you had to choose, which type of marriage is better: one chosen by families (arranged) or one chosen by yourself based on love (love marriage)? Why?
- Reel vs Real Life: Are We Losing Our Privacy?
Has the Reel World Taken Over Our Real-World Privacy?
- Who cooks better — boys or girls?
Are boys outperforming girls in cooking?
- Is Work from Home a Dream Job or a Desirable Choice for Employees?
Is working from home something employees dream about (the perfect job) or is it just a job they like because it's convenient and comfortable?

Topic of the Day: Proverb

A proverb is a short, commonly known saying that gives advice or expresses a general truth based on experience or cultural wisdom.

❖ Don't count your chickens before they hatch

Meaning: Don't assume something will happen before it actually does.

Example: Don't celebrate the job until you get the offer.

❖ Beggars can't be choosers

Meaning: If you really need help, you can't be picky—accept what you get.

Example: He complained about the free food, but beggars can't be choosers.

❖ Don't bite the hand that feeds you

Meaning: Don't harm or disrespect the person who helps you.

Example: She shouldn't insult her boss; don't bite the hand that feeds you.

❖ A rolling stone gathers no moss

Meaning: A person who keeps moving or changing never gains stability or long-term growth.

Example: He changes jobs every month—no wonder he hasn't built a career.

❖ Every cloud has a silver lining

Meaning: Something good can be found even in bad situations.

Example: Losing the job was hard, but it led her to a better opportunity.

❖ Don't cry over spilled milk

Meaning: Don't worry about things that already happened and can't be changed.

Example: The mistake is done—don't cry over spilled milk.

❖ Actions speak louder than words

Meaning: What you do matters more than what you say.

Example: He promised to help, but actions speak louder than words.

❖ A journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step

Meaning: Every big achievement starts with a small first step.

Example: Start studying today—even a small step matter.

❖ Half a loaf is better than no bread

Meaning: Having a little is better than having nothing.

Example: The job pays less than he wanted, but it's still something.

❖ If opportunity doesn't knock, build doors

Meaning: If chances don't come to you, create your own opportunities.

Example: She started her own business when she couldn't find a job.

❖ All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy

Meaning: Working all the time without rest or fun makes life boring and unhealthy.

Example: Take a break—you know what they say: all work and no play.
